

Submission 22 – Confidential

In the history of recreational drones there has Not been one recorded death in the World in relation to flying recreational drones, In Australia and NZ Two major drone accidents with aircraft were in fact caused By Police operated drones, and False and misleading photos published by CASA UK showing a drone flying at 800klm at 30,000 feet is shameful.

The sub 250gm drones should be exempt.