

Submission 08 – Confidential

The document presented doesn't accurately describe the technology. If introduced, remote ID will needlessly stifle hobbyists while not solving problems which exist in the drone space. This proposal should limit the mandate to drones which are commercial in nature or above a certain weight limit.