

Submission 05 – Confidential

The drone delivery services are a gratuitous invasion of privacy. They reduce public amenity and have a potentially negative impact on property values. The benefits of drone delivery services in medium density suburbs are negligible. Traffic congestion is not an issue and other less disruptive delivery options are available. The only scenario in which drone delivery services should be permitted is high density city areas.