

Submission 01 – Confidential

Remote ID is going to be a problem for many drone pilots. As many drones don't use phones. This includes many popular models from DJI. Increasingly with technology phones are now rarely used. These are being switched out for dedicated controllers or goggles. Many inexpensive drones are also not even capable of remote ID. Which means without these pilots will be flying illegally if they don't spend more for an expensive drone. P