

Submission 21 – Jon Lewis

The routine use of drones in residential areas should be extremely tightly controlled. Drone delivery of anything other than in an emergency situation, controlled by emergency response services, should be banned.