

Submission 33 – Confidential

I support drone use in emergency and disaster situations only. I do NOT support commercial deliveries. Why must we now privatise the space above our heads? Leave some space for the poor, endangered birds, insects and bats. I don't want my visual and sound space polluted by my neighbour's aerial junk food cravings. As for sustainability, please! The foundations for this claim are flimsy at best.