

Submission 42 – John Brown

Hi, these private drones used for non urgent deliveries will just disturb the already noisy, stressful lives of people below. It is already acknowledged that modern living is noisy and stressful so to allow/ add more noise and disturbances to the one place we can escape the stress and noise is just a bad idea.

Please stop the privatization of the sky, it belongs to everyone and should not be inundated with noisy drones at any time of day/ night!!!