

Submission 49 – Confidential

It should be possible and easy to declare my home a "No low flying, annoying, privacy invading and moderately dangerous drone area".

Similar to the do not call register.

It should be easy to report infringements, and MEANINGFUL penalties should apply.

If people are continually buzzed by drones, eventually they will start trying to shoot them down. Nothing about that will be as fun as it might seem at first