

Submission 54 – David Yap

Legalisation of drones for the widespread delivery of largely unnecessary consumables would be a blight on our towns and cities, a nasty intrusion into our lives. This is a greenwashing attempt by a monopolistic multinational (Alphabet Inc) to justify their pollution of Australian skies to hawk the sort of mindless consumption which we have to leave behind if we have any chance of preventing the climate catastrophe